

The Barmy British Empire - Teapot card

During the British Empire period, the British felled vast forests of trees in order to set up tree plantations in India. The land was taken off the local Indians who lived there. Most of the tea was then shipped to England.

Instructions for teapot card.

- 1) Print and cut out the shapes and stick onto folded A4 card.
- 2) Decorate with any scraps or stickers that you have available.
- 3) Stick a teabag inside your card and address to someone you like.

