

The Terrible Tudors - Macbeth's Witch

Enjoy making one of the witches from Macbeth, one of Shakespeare's more famous plays. William Shakespeare was a Tudor playwright.

You will need:

The witch shapes printed onto card (or paper)
felt pens wool scissors wooden spatula (or similar)

Instructions for witch

- 1) Draw/stick features on the face and stick to spatula
- 2) Add wool hair (tie one thread around a bunch of threads and stick on)
- 3) Add clothes and hands
- 4) Get your puppet to say 'Double, double, toils and trouble; Fire burn and cauldron bubble'.
