

The Smashing Saxons - The Staffordshire Hoard

The Staffordshire Hoard is a large collection of Anglo-Saxon gold and silver metal work discovered in 2009 and housed in the Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery. It contains a number of crosses like the one in our activity, made of gold and lavishly decorated with garnets.

Instructions for gold cross

You will need glue, scissors, shiny card

- 1) Print off and draw round your template cross onto some shiny paper or card.
- 2) Cut some mosaic pieces of red shiny paper/card.
- 3) Decorate the cross with shiny pieces.