

Woeful second World War - Dig for Victory:

Dr Carrot

During the second world war ordinary people were encouraged to use their gardens to grow food. 'Doctor Carrot', carrying his bag of vitamin A, appeared on many posters encouraging people to 'Dig for Victory'.

Print this page onto thin card.
Cut out shapes and assemble Dr Carrot (see picture) on to an A4 sheet.

Draw on face and features

You will need scissors

glue

pens

